Scouting Report (Melaney Torres, former Big 12 All Conference, catcher, current head coach DISD)

“Madison is a strong, tall, athletic player and a vocal leader. All the foundational requirements for an Elite level player are present with the exception of foot speed. As a pitcher Madison has exceptional velocity on her fastball and is able to hit her spots well. At first base her wingspan allows for excellent reach and she excels digging balls from the dirt. Offensively Madison hits from the right side, is an excellent contact hitter and does not strike out much. She has the potential to hit for power. Madison needs to work on her speed and mechanics on the base paths, and having confidence in her entire repertoire of weapons in the circle”
